WHY HIGHWAYS AID BILL WAS KILLED.

Great efforts are being made by the conservatives to make political capital out of the alleged defeat of the highways aid bill by the senate. The facts are that the government and not the senate defeated this bill. It was rejected during the first session of the conservative parliament because the government insisted that it should retain control of all moneys and have the spending of them as it pleased. The real object, of course, was to give opportunity for exploiting the grants for political purposes at election times. The liberal opposition demanded that the bill should provide for voting the money to the provinces according to population, to be spent directly by the provincial governments. Rather than accept the amendment the Borden government abandoned the bill.

It was reintroduced last session, with the same objectionable clauses. The liberals in the commons tried to amend it so as to maintain provincial rights, but were voted down. Then the senate added an amendment providing that the money should be voted to the provinces according to population and be expended by them. This the Borden government again refused. The ministers preferred to drop the bill if they could not handle the money themselves. The highways aid bill was thus deliberately killed by the tory government and not by the liberals, who supported the principle of dominion aid to highway improvement, but fought the attempt at unconstitutional centralization of power over expenditure in the hands of unscrupulous federal ministers.

HOW WILL THE ALDERMEN JUSTIFY THIS COURSE.

In adopting the policy that only one gas company shall have the right to deal with the city in the matter of supplying gas at the city limits, it would be interesting to know how the aldermen who voted for this action propose to justify their failure to provide for a sufficient bond to guarantee that the city will get gas by entering into the agreement which this company offers.

Any agreement which the city gives will be binding upon the city, as the city is altogether too big to close its office and move away. But unless there is a sufficient bond, it is difficult to see how the company can be held responsible for failure to fulfill the contract. In case the company did fail, the effect would be that the city would be without gas for the number of years allowed the company to complete its work, and at the end of that term the city would be in the same position it is today; that is to say, without gas.

One company offered to furnish a bond to guarantee that it would deliver gas. The other company made no such offer. The aldermen rejected without consideration the company which offered to furnish the bond and chose without qualification the company which failed to make any such offer. The pertinent question is: Why?

WHERE PROTECTION FALLS UNDER THE PRACTICAL TEST.

Cattle, when entering Canada, pay an import duty of 25 per cent. For entry into United States, under the tariff recently adopted at Washington, cattle pay no duty.

On account of the almost total failure of the corn crop in a large section of the middle west, fat cattle in United States are scarcer than in many years past. On account of an exceptional crop in the Canadian west, feed is more plentiful in this country than ever before.

But while Canadian farmers, under the United States tariff, now have the opportunity to sell cattle in United States markets and thereby get what advantage they may from the demand occasioned by the corn failure, they are precluded, by the Canadian tariff, from importing stockers from the south to take the place of those shipped out. In other words, the Canadian farmers enjoy only one half the benefits of free trade.

The claim made by those who opposed reciprocity, that through the lowering of the United States duty without any reciprocal arrangement Canada was to get all the advantage while giving none in return, does not stand the practical test.

GHOST DANCING AROUND A SUBJECT IT DOES NOT UNDERSTAND.

The Bulletin has discovered a new danger which gives it pause to test the present council system be substituted by an elective commission. The Bulletin's trepidation is caused by the fear that in some way elected commissioners, placed in office by the assistance of corporations, might sell the city out.

Its think-tank being filled with canned theories and cold storage facts, the Bulletin does not find a fresh idea very compatible. But just as an experiment in hypothesis, the Bulletin might suppose a commissioner whose acts were subject to the referendum and whose office was held subject to the recall, and figure out, from this premise, just about how often, approximately, such an office-holder would sell out the public.

The fact is that the Bulletin is ghost dancing around a subject it does not understand.

THE INCREASING TENSION IN MEXICO AND WASHINGTON.

At no time since the fall of Porfirio Diaz has the tension between the United States and Mexico been as great as it is at the present moment. Assuming the essential correctness of the latest reports from Mexico City and Washington, something very like an ultimatum has been handed President Huerta by Charge O'Shaughnessy. The Mexican dictator has been requested to get out, to vacate, to skedaddle. If this order is peremptory and if Huerta refuses to obey, there will be only one course left open to a self-respecting government. It must employ pressure. Pressure under such circumstances ordinarily means physical force, that is, war.

TODAY IN DOMINION HISTORY.

On this date in 1775 Gen. Richard Montgomery and his army of republicans entered Montreal, the city having been abandoned as untenable by Sir Guy Carleton. As the Americans approached, the brave Carleton, realizing the futility of the fight, retreated to Quebec with the garrison. Many officers and soldiers were captured, but the Governor escaped. On the same day that Montgomery entered Montreal without opposition, Col. Benedict Arnold, still a loyal adherent of the revolutionary cause, crossed the river and arrived at the historic Plains of Abraham. Arnold had led an expedition through a terrible wilderness to the banks of the St. Lawrence, and when he appeared before the ancient capital, the invaders were repulsed and the brilliant Montgomery was slain.

November 13 is the birthday of William Thomas White, Minister of Finance in the Borden Government, in Halifax, Nova Scotia; and the Rev. Robert Fisher, eminent Methodist clergyman, at Stomach, P. O. 1844.

TODAY WE CELEBRATE

Centenary of Thurman, the "Old Roman" of Democracy

Virginia and Ohio will join in paying tribute to the memory of Allen Thurman, the "Old Roman" of Democracy, whose centenary will be celebrated today. The old dominion class, who was a native son, for he was born in Lebanon, Va., Nov. 12, 1812, but it was in Ohio, where he came to the full maturity of his manhood, that he won the title of "Old Roman" of the Democracy of the nation. Many disagreed violently with his political views, but all men of integrity joined in the same-minded and proud "Old Roman," who so truly represented the democracy of his day, and said: "There is an honest man."

Many Americans can recall the time, a century ago, when a man of such integrity and democratic convictions stood at the head of the Democracy, and in the name of the Democracy, he fought the battle of the Democracy; and in the name of the Democracy, he fought the battle of the Democracy. Thurman was defeated for the vice-presidency in 1880, as there before he had been defeated in his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination. During his long public career, which began in 1845 with his election to Congress, the highest office he held was that of United States senator. Yet for many years he was the great man of his party, and his influence on the Democratic party was incalculable. Whether in Washington, or in the quiet of the rural life, he was the "Old Roman" of the Democracy, and his name was a synonym for the "Old Roman" of the Democracy.

Not long before his death in Columbus, Ohio, he was found in the office of a cheap Columbus hotel, sitting modestly, when questioned, of the part he had played in the public affairs of his country. But he could not refrain from one boast:

"I never sent me to the United States Senate. Neither of the elections cost me as much as a five-cent cigar."

Today is the festival of St. Brice, who may be called the patron saint of football players, but whose feast-day comes during the season for the football game, but for quite another reason. St. Brice's day was long years ago observed in England, and in the year 1012 the celebration took the form of a general massacre of the Danes. It was on that day, according to tradition, that the English game of football was invented, with the head of a Dane for the ball. St. Brice, of course, is not responsible for either the massacre or the football game, having died some six centuries before. He was a bishop of Tours, and lived in the fifth century.

For about two centuries after the death of St. Brice, England's ancient sports, have celebrated the 13th of November as "Gobolus Day." It commemorates the name and fame of Edward Colston, who gave the town of Bristol a free public school, and the first hospital.

French artistic societies will celebrate today the centenary of the birth of Auguste Alexandre Charles Blanc, who was the most eminent art critic and authority of his generation.

FIRST THINGS

The first settlement on the site of the present city of Seattle, the young metropolis of the northwest, was made 62 years ago today, Arthur and David Henry Johnson, the party of immigrants from Oregon who laid the foundation of the future great municipality, which was named Seattle in honor of Chief Seattle, the most powerful Indian chief of the Puget Sound region. The redskins welcomed the paleface settlers, who remained on terms of close friendship with the chief until his death 14 years later. The growth of Seattle was at first very slow, but by 1850 it had a population of only 2,000. In 1890 the population was 571, and in 1910 it had increased to nearly a quarter of a million. Puget Sound was first explored by George Vancouver in 1792. For many years the country was jointly occupied by the United States and Great Britain. Port Seattle, on Puget Sound, was established in 1849. Tacoma, Seattle's rival, was the site of a small town and a few log cabins in 1872, when it was chosen as the western terminus of the Northern Pacific railway.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

Monroe's Prince, Recently an American Visitor, is Today

His royal highness, Albert (honore Charles) Prince of Monaco, who recently returned to his own little country after an extended visit of America, will celebrate his 65 birthday today. The prince is intensely wealthy, his vast income being derived from the eldorado gambling "hall" of Monte Carlo. "Gambling," says the prince, is a largely a matter of temperament, and it is difficult to make laws against it. Men will gamble so long as they have it regulated. And, he adds, it is more profitable in this highest, because it amuses his own people. The prince is a strictly forbidding man, and he is not a well proportioned figure and does not look like a prince. He is an enthusiastic student of geology, and his scientific and business in Monaco is one of the finest of kind in the world. The prince's first wife, Lady Mary Douglas-Hamilton, an Englishwoman, divorced him, and his marriage with Alice Heine, of New Orleans, was of a brief duration. Prince Louis, his son by his first marriage, is the heir to the throne, and his daughter, Charlotte Louise, 14, is betrothed to Prince John Drew, the last of the illustrious line of maitre d'hôtel, who will celebrate his 60 birthday today. He is a native of Philadelphia and the son of a famous comedian and in almost every celebrated actress. The "Dean of the American stage" made his debut 40 years ago at the Arch Street Theatre in Philadelphia, playing a minor role in the farce "Gold as a Cucumber." ## LOSS OF VESSELS AGGREGATES $2,500,000

Steamer McGeehan Lost.

Port Huron, Nov. 12.—It is reported that the steamer John A. McGeehan, of Cleveland, one of the largest on the Great Lakes, was lost in the storm of Sunday. The McGeehan was reported to have been the last heard of her. The bodies of two men who sailed on the McGeehan are reported washed ashore below Sarnia.

More Missing Vessels.

Port Huron, Nov. 12.—Reports of more missing vessels came today but great for banks had settled down by late afternoon and the secret of the number and identity of lost ships and men in the recent lake on Lake Huron was far from being revealed. The latest disaster reported was to the effect that the steamer John A. McGeehan of the Pioneer Steamship company of Cleveland, had gone down. The report came in this forenoon.

Including the McGeehan, six ships may be on the bottom of Lake Huron and a hundred or more sailors are almost certain to have been drowned. The bodies of two men who sailed on the McGeehan are said to have been washed ashore.

Three Bodies Lashed to Raft

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 12.—The company received a dispatch from Coroner C. C. Hunter at Gohierich, which stated that the bodies of three men which were washed to a life raft picked up there had been identified. They were Seaman Thomas Stone, John Owens, and Thomas L. Smith, all identified as on the company's payroll.

Tug Sent Out.

Port Arthur, Nov. 12.—The tug Superior is being sent out to search the vicinity of Pelee Island for the lost vessel.

Twenty-eight Drowned.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 12.—The loss of the steamer John A. McGeehan, operated by the Hutchinson Steamship company here, was confirmed by officials of the company today. The ship sank in Lake Huron. It is believed that Captain C. R. Nye, and all of the crew 28 men, were drowned. The company has received dispatches from Gohierich, Ont., saying three bodies have washed ashore there.

Twenty-six Bodies.

Up to this forenoon 26 bodies and the boat wreckage of all descriptions have been tossed upon the Canadian shore, from Point Edward, opposite here, north to Gohierich. Lifeboats, lifeboats and water-soaked cargo, bore evidence to indicate that the steamers Regina, Charles B. Price, Nye, and James Carruthers, were probably at the bottom of the lake.

In a hurriedly overturned derelict lay in the lake a few miles northeast of here as mysterious as ever. A diver was ready to make another effort to learn her name, but he had to wait until the fog lifted. Although fishermen in this locality were still firm in their belief that the overturned steamer is the Regina, the latter was not found enough for the company. They said that their boat had a marked hole as the result of a collision. The bow of the partially submerged vessel was said to be smooth and undamaged.

Only Four Identified.

Identification of only four of the bodies washed ashore had been made up to this morning. Reports were current that Gohierich had robbed the bodies of all that might lead to identification. Provincial police and detectives were today investigating these reports. The list of recovered dead this forenoon was as follows:

Three from the steamer Regina, one from the steamer Charles B. Price, two from steamer McGeehan, seven from steamer Carruthers, nine from steamer Westford.

This is a total of 25. All of these bodies are now distributed at shore locations on the Canadian coast.

Relief Expedition.

Cleveland, Nov. 12.—The steamer Regina, one of the largest on the Great Lakes, was fitted with supplies of all kinds.

WHALEB LOST ON ALASKAN COAST

Captain and Crew of Elvira are Safe—Many Vessels Icebound.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—News of the loss of the whaler Elvira on the northern Alaska coast, was received here yesterday in a dispatch from Circle, on the Yukon river. Captain Peterson and his crew of 15 men were reported safe. The same message said the fleet of vessels in the Arctic or along the Alaskan coast was icebound. Not one had succeeded in reaching Herschel Island, the northernmost point of the northernmost mountain. It reported the old whaler Elvira, carrying part of the equipment of the Sitka expedition last in the ice, but did not give her location. The Elvira, carrying Steffensen himself, was last seen by Captain Peterson, who was the first shore of Flaxman Island, which is well around point Barrow on the Arctic leg of the journey to Herschel Island.

LOOK! IF YOU WERE TOLD OF A NEW DISCOVERY FOR THE TREATMENT OF COUGHS, COLDS AND BRONCHITIS, AS CERTAIN IN ITS ACTION ON ALL CHEST TROUBLES AS ANTITOXIN IS ON DIPHTHERIA, OR VACCINATION ON SMALL-POX, WOULD YOU NOT FEEL LIKE TRYING IT? Especially IF YOU COULD TRY IT FOR FIFTY CENTS!

Peps is the discovery!
Peps is a little tablet, easily wrapped in air and germ-proof silver foil. They contain certain medicinal ingredients which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are at once breathed down, passing to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membrane of the bronchial tubes, loosen the phlegm, and disengage the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry off the poison to the capillaries and clear it out of the system.

If you were told of a new discovery for the treatment of coughs, colds and bronchitis, as certain in its action on all chest troubles as antitoxin is on diphtheria, or vaccination on small-pox, would you not feel like trying it? Especially if you could try it for fifty cents!

OVER A HUNDRED THOUSAND LIVE ON DUBLIN'S QUARTY

Two Thousand More Added to Army of 30,000 Workless Men.

London, Nov. 12.—Twenty thousand men were added yesterday by a dramatic stroke to the number of men and women estimated at 30,000, who are already workless, owing to the labor war in Dublin which has now lasted nearly three months. More than 100,000 men, women and children are living on what charity they can obtain. The trade of the city is paralyzed.

Many firms have had to appeal for financial assistance to save them from closing. In the meantime, there are no signs of a settlement.

At the dinner hour yesterday, delegates from the transport unions went through the shipping shed, calling on strike all the dock laborers engaged in the work.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP—25 CENT DANDERINE

Girls! Girls! Save your hair!
Make it grow luxuriant and beautiful.

If you care for heavy hair, that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.
Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life.

and if not overcome it produces a frenziedness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots furnish, loosen and die, then the hair falls out fast.
If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lose of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. It eventually—why not now?

Lady Strathcona Dies of Pneumonia in London, Eng.

Was of Retiring Disposition, but of Great Assistance to Her Husband in His Efforts to Advance the Interests of Canada—Was in 89th Year.

London, Nov. 12.—The death took place yesterday of Lady Strathcona at 25 Grosvenor Place, after a brief illness.
Her ladyship, who is Lord Strathcona's second wife and a daughter of the late Richard Hardisty, of Montreal, contracted a severe influenza six weeks ago, which developed a few days later into pneumonia, to which her ladyship succumbed yesterday. Lady Strathcona was in her 89th year.

Of a retiring disposition and not often prominently before the public, Lady Strathcona, says the Daily Mail in a lengthy memoir, worked quietly with her husband in his great imperial schemes which have done so much to strengthen the bonds between Canada and the mother country. The close relationship between Lord and Lady Strathcona was demonstrated in the late summer this year when the com-ple undertook the fatiguing journey to Canada and back. She was moved by a great spirit of charity and in 1906 she gave 100,000 guineas to Queen Alexandra's unemployed fund, and the Imperial work that lay near to her heart was revealed in her wish that the greater part of the money should be used to enable the unemployed, their wives and children to emigrate to the Canadian Northwest.

Interment in London.
London, Nov. 13.—Lady Strathcona will be interred in Highgate cemetery, probably next Saturday.

NAVAL TACTICS NO LONGER ACCORD MODERN METHODS

Paris Paper Declares French System is Not Up-to-date.

Paris, Nov. 12.—La Liberté publishes an important interview of Pierre Baudin, minister of marine, who says that the naval tactics of the European powers, and in particular Germany and Italy, are based on the squand of eight vessels of identical type. French divisions, he adds, are no longer in accord with modern tactics, and therefore the French marine council decided to begin the construction in January next of four ships of the Lorraine class and four others in January, 1915, of a new type.

Respecting aerial preparations M.
Baudin declares that aeroplanes can be used at naval bases, but that dirigibles still will be important at the four naval bases to assure the control of the Mediterranean.

BULGARIA ISSUES AN ULTIMATUM TO GREECE

Demands That Crucities Cease and Prisoners Be Released and Returned Home.

Sofia, Nov. 12.—Bulgaria has sent through the French legation ultimatum to Greece demanding: That persecution of Bulgarians in Macedonia cease. That autonomous rights be accorded to Bulgarian churches and schools in Macedonia, such as they enjoyed under Turkish rule.

Permission for Macedonian Bulgars who fled from the reign of terror to return unmolested to their homes.

That all Bulgarian prisoners in Greece be released and that all prisoners of war be allowed to return to Bulgaria.

The ultimatum is couched in strong language and places a limit of eight days for its acceptance.

"WHAT HAPPENED TO MARY," TAKEN FROM STORY SERIES

Usual Girl From Country, Designing Young Man and Honest Old Captain Figure in the Piece.

"What Happened to Mary" a new comedy by Owen Davis which was produced at the Fulton theatre, New York City, last season, was well received by press and public. It is a dramatization made from short stories that have been appearing in "The Ladies World." Whether these stories have been widely read or not, it is safe to wager that a great many people who now wish to learn more about her. It is impossible to say just how much the play adds to the story—but in some points at least the play has an advantage over the original. It gives us a "Mary" whom we can carry with other eyes than those of imagination and whom we can follow with perhaps a greater interest. Mary is an orphan living with a supposed uncle and aunt in an island in China.
She is a young girl, the first act takes place. Her only friend is a retired sea captain who helps her acquire an education—she runs away to the city in search of a livelihood and in hopes of finding some of her relatives. The second act shows her adventures in a New York boarding house and the discovery of a young prostitute, (Henry Craig), who has met her on the island during a yachting trip. In the same house lives a young stenographer whom Hy Craig has wronged and who has been discharged. Craig promises to get Mary a position at his father's office, but John Willis, partner of the act finds Mary's father intervenes and takes her under his wing. Mary over-hears a scene between young Craig and the stenographer and her eyes are opened to his true character. The third act finds Mary a stenographer in the office of Craig and Willis. The young rogue schemes with the girl he wronged to accomplish Mary's downfall because she repulsed his advances, which might have succeeded but for the interference of John Willis. Willis, a peculiar character, being a confirmed bachelor and woman hater, is respected as well as feared by Mary; but at the crucial moment she realizes he is her friend in need.

The story. Producing company have given the play a complete reproduction and as it was described by one of the New York critics, "What Happened to Mary" is "a cameo in a Broadway setting."

"WATER RAT" AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Detective Story Attracts Much Attention—Shown This Afternoon and Evening.

In the "Water Rat" production at the Empress today Professor Lockley, of whom so much has been heard in the detective world, goes through exactly the same scene as happened to him in reality while unearthing some of the most desperate criminals of Europe. In the picture the famous detective is seen with a fellow sleuth hold up at the point of two revolvers.
He stoops over to baton his shoe and immediately hurls a table at the third party.

This same incident occurred only a few years ago. Lockley had been summoned to discover where several diamonds had gone to. They had been stolen from the home of a wealthy female. It was a hard case to handle, but eventually he found the valuables in an underground cave or cellar which was the den of a band of thieves. With a confederate, he entered the cellar. In his pocket was a warrant for the arrest of the leader, who happened to be the only member of the gang at home.

Famous "Pint of Cough Syrup" Recipe

No Better Remedy at Any Price.
Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 24 cups of pure Pinex (fifty-cent worth) in a measure bottle, and fill it up with the sugar syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of 12. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is a prime favorite in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada.
The plan has been imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualacol and all the natural ingredients of the Pinex.
Other preparations will not work in this case.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

FRIDAY NIGHT IS SCOTCH NIGHT AT ORPHEUM THEATRE

Jack Park, Scottish Comedian, Will Put on Extra Numbers for Old Country Folks.

Tomorrow night will be Scotch night at the Orpheum theatre. Jack Park, Scottish comedian, who has been in the business for many years, has played the night week for Scotch night, and the management of the Orpheum has decided to do the same here and has named Friday night for that event. Mr. Park will specialize to the old country people's memories of Al Lang Syne and will sing such old favorite songs as "The Wee House Among the Heather," and "My Father's Great House." It's a new "When You Love a Wee Lassie." The pictures will include some of the best that theatre has ever shown. One in particular, which is of the highest class, is the two-reel feature, "House of the Dead." This is an exceptionally fine picture, with a high moral and should be appreciated by all. Two other reels, including a funny comedy, will also be shown.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week the Palmier Concert company will appear for a return engagement. These ladies rank without doubt among the best musicians who have ever played in Edmonton, and crowd houses may confidently be looked for.

BILLY VAN, KING OF MINSTRELS, IS HERE NEXT WEEK

One of America's favorite minstrel kings comes to the Empire theatre the first half of next week as the headliner of the Orpheum vaudeville bill in the person of Billy E. Van, who with the assistance of the Beaumont Sisters presents "Progs," a half dozen with the stage hand and two pseudo actresses.
Mr. Van has discarded the burnt cork, and appears this season as a "straight," in which he is equally as popular as before.

"The Girl With the Thrush-like Voice" is the sub-caption mentioned in connection with Sophie Bernard, who is no so-called in costuming her various songs as she is capable as a vocalist.
She is a statuesque brunette, of perfect

"THE GREENHORN" MORE INTERESTING THAN USUAL FILMS

Army Story With a Touch of Love—Amateur Night
on Friday.

Unlike the usual run of war pictures,
"The Greenhorn" at the Bijou yesterday proved more interesting and different in every respect. There was the love story included in the film but the other parts are so interesting that both audiences yesterday were delighted.
The same picture will be shown again this afternoon and evening.

Tomorrow night will see something new in the line of entertainment at the Bijou. It will be the first amateur night held in the first street theatre.
Generally such a night in theatres causes more laughter and fun than any other kind of entertainment. Such it will be at the Bijou. There will be a lot of fun but at the same time there will be the refined kind of entertainment offered by some of the competitors for the gold piece.

At the same performance one of the best motion pictures ever sent to Edmonton will be shown. It is entitled "The Clown's Daughter," and full of dramatic incidents. In this production there is seen an entire circus outfit. As a matter of fact the film company had to send its performers around with the circus for an entire week before the camera man completed his work. The savage is shown and all the other features of a big show under canvas.
On Monday a special attraction will be at the Bijou and the patrons may look forward to a splendid program for the first two days of next week.

PERFORMANCE OF EX-CONVICT IS A HUGE SUCCESS

Hassell's Wonderful Work Draws Appreciative Audience to Royal Theatre.

Ex-convict Hassell's exposure of the system at present in vogue at most of the penitentiaries is one of the most unique and interesting performances ever shown in this city.

Those who were fortunate enough to witness this program were unanimous in their opinion that the show was the best of its kind ever seen in this city.
Indeed so few performances of this nature have been brought to Edmonton that it can be termed "a rare treat."

Regular patrons of the theatre, on being asked their opinion, expressed the wish that more attractions of the same kind could be shown at the popular Nunavut avenue picture house.

The pictures shown deal with the life of a convict from his arrest to the end.
They are explained in such a lucid manner by Mr. Hassell that the audiences were made to appreciate every detail, and it is certain that if every picture shown in every theatre could be explained by such an able ex-ponent as Mr. Hassell, the "Movies" would become far more popular.

The musical program in connection with the pictures give just the requisite touch to make the performance thoroughly enjoyable. Miss Marguerite Matthews a soprano of wonderful ability, having studied under the most famous of European masters, and possessing a most pleasing voice and personality. Miss Matthews sings "The Garden of My Heart" and "Over the Summer Sea" from Bizet's and in these songs shows the marvelous flexibility of her voice over which she has complete control. It can safely be said that Miss Marguerite sings with the greatest ease and a more charming exponent of the vocal art is seldom found

SEXTETTE ACT FEATURE AT PAN'S ALL NEXT WEEK

Alpha Sextette of Opera Singers Will Offer Selections from Grand Opera.

The Alpha Sextette, will be the added attraction at Pantages next week and an idea of the excellence of the action is given in the following review: Melodious harmony and beautiful scenery combine to make the performance of the Alpha Sextette unquestion-ably the feature of next week's bill at Pantages theatre. The sextette act is subtly staged, which accentuates the excellence of the voices of its members and the popularity of their selections in no small degree. The curtain rises on a moonlight river scene, when in the distance are heard the voices chanting "The Night of Love" from the "Tales of Hoffman." They then sing a madley from "Marta" and conclude with "The Rose." The leading soprano has a voice of wide range and an enunciation so perfect as to make her singing a pleasure. The chorists accorded these singers are proofs that vaudeville patrons appreciate high class music properly presented. This will increase the value of the coming feature.

EDMONTON CANOE CLUB FINEST IN THE WEST

Canoe Club's New Home One of the Finest in Canada

Record in Boat House Building is Made—New Club Will be Scene of Many Receptions During Winter—Snow Shoe Club to be Formed.

According to announcement made by President H. Trickey within the next three weeks the home of the Edmonton Canoe Club will be fully completed. This makes a record in building of a boat club in North America for it was not until August that plans were set on foot and by the end of the month everything will be completed.

Situated on the river at St. Albert, the Edmonton Canoe Club will have a home that is second to none in Canada. The building is a very extensive affair with a ground floor capacity of 125 boats. Within the spacious sitting room a fireplace with a capacity for holding a full-sized Yule log has been built and will throw cheer when the wintery winds blow.

At the last meeting a house committee were elected and full plans for dances and card parties were made. A snow shoe club is also being formed. In the matter of receptions and dances the big main hall of the club house is as commodious as anything in the city and with the program of receptions and dances as proposed by the committee the big hall will be in much demand throughout the winter.

The meeting of the stockholders was most enthusiastic and after all the reports of the working committees had been received, a general feeling of surprise was expressed at the rapid progress which has been made. Regina Was Lucky.
The victory of the Regina team in the semi-final of the W.C.R.F.U. championship against Edmonton speaks volumes for Saskatchewan rugby. It proves that the brand drilled in Saskatchewan is easily the best in the west. In spite of the fact that Regina was to a certain extent lucky, to win as they did, they took advantage of Edmonton's mis-cues and it is a good team that will do this.

Cullen Gets Credit Due.
Edmonton, however, put the best man in the Union on display. This boy Cullen is certainly a star half-back. His tricky dodging runs were the feature of a fine game and he received liberal applause from the fans every time he turned a stunt.

Edmonton's Good Points.
Edmonton seemed to have it on Regina, both on the line and half back division. However, the Pioneers took advantage of every fumble or play which their opponents made and it was this that won the game for them.

Deacon Done Much.
After the game, Deacon White, manager of the Edmonton, White, manager of the Regina, was through with rugby for all time. However, it is to be hoped that the genial Deacon will stick with the game. He has done much for Edmonton sport. First he gave them a good professional ball team, then he took his Eskimo hockeyists down to Winnipeg to play for the Allan cup, and now he brings the Eskimo rugby club to Regina to play for the semi-final. He will next year have a first-class baseball team in the W.C.L.—Missouri News-Journal.

Regret Passing of Seven-Man Hockey.
The passing of seven-man hockey, temporarily at least, is to be regretted. At the annual meeting of the N.H.A. in Montreal tonight no action will be taken toward returning from the six to seven men game, so that another season of abbreviated hockey will be played in the big league at least. When we recall the St. Louis-Saskatoon-McGill-Niagara forward line of 1905, where combination was spelled in every play, where goals were scored after a series of passes across the ice and back again with four men shuttling around, the most picturesque part of the game is taken away. In the six men game combination has been eliminated.

DREYFUS CHARGES THAT N. A. VIOLATION OF RULES CAUSED TROUBLE

Uniform Style of Contract Suitable for Players of Five Different Classes is Problem Now Being Handled by Committee.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 13.—Five committees were announced by the president of the association of professional baseball leagues in yesterday's session. One committee was assigned the problem of devising a way whereby a uniform style of contract can be prepared for players of the five different classes of clubs affiliated with the organization and is headed by President Dreyfus of the Oakland club, of the Pacific coast league.

The other committees to the convention of the National commission made a suggestion of uniformity. The greatest trouble now apparent, baseball men say, is the possible insertion of a clause requiring a player to be given the option of release 10 days prior to the time the release can be made effective. It is understood that class A leagues are willing to work under this plan, but those in classes B, C and D, to not favor the idea of having to carry a player for ten days on pay.

"Frank" Thompson and Rogers are also on the injured list but both expect to play. All the others went out and indulged in a hard practice yesterday afternoon.

SPORTOGRAPHY

Old Man King, 38 Today, Has Quit Diamond—Again.
Old Man King has quit baseball for good. The eminent sportsman, forty old, today the 38th anniversary of his birth, and he thinks that at this age it is time to stop. Although failed a song and story as "Nasty John," he is really the next retiring man in baseball, for he has pulled off a feat as often as that Nelson, which is going home. The Hot Stove League has come to expect disasters from Kansas City announcing that John will not make the team on more money and John, nevertheless, says, "Such forecasts may be made, but I will not be deterred. I will play my way, and I will not be deterred by force of bad luck. During the last season the retiring John was in the kitchen for the Cincinnati Red Sox, at a salary of $10,000 a year, and he finished the season with a record of 10-10, a total of $40,000. In addition to this comfortable income, King owns a house in Kansas City, a car, and a fine collection of books. He is a native of the Show-Me State, having been born in Kansas City, Mo., in 1875. He first began to make a noise like a baseball player some 20 years ago, when he was in the line-up of Kansas City independent and semi-professional teams. In 1896 he was given a try-out by the St. Louis Nationals, but a narrow escape from being accepted, he was sent to the minors. After a brief experience at Rockford, Ill., King returned to Kansas City to play with the semi-pros. At that period of his building career John occasionally entertained a notion that he could pitch, and in 1899 Houston, Tex., gave him a trial in the box. He was not a brilliant success as a pitcher, but the next year St. Joe gave him a chance to show what he could do. He was called up and right there John made good. He became the catching mainstay of the club, and he became the catching mainstay of the great chance machine. In 1903 Cincinnati gave him a berth as manager, but he wouldn't let him accept, so John retired to play in Nippon's summer league. He returned to the fold in 1910, was sent to Boston in 1911, and went to Cincy in 1912.

Once V.H., the Detroit infielder, declares that "He is valuable to the box office and his own record." Says V.H. Danchell men are wondering who the joke will be on if Dodo Cris, who was with the Browns several years ago, and who played with Houston of the Texas league this season, turned out to be a wonder. Several pitchers are wondering who is one thing we know about Cris, and that is he can hit.

Here are some titles that can be given to Mike Donohue. Big league ball player, minor league ball player, actor man and globe trotter.

There will be many star left-handed batters in the majors next season. Among them will be Russell, Volman, Leverage, Mitchell, Ray Collins, Hammon, Boelling, Tyler, Pierce, Marquand, Vean Greas and—the dignity of them all—Eddie Plank.

In 1911 the importations of foreign-made clothing from foreign and Chinese ports were valued at only $2,500, in 1912 they went up to $43,261.
